

EQUAL UNDER GOD

A film by Anderson Xia
Evan Garica
Abigail Hodgson
Northwestern University
Medill School of Journalism

Tuesday 15th November 2016
7.30 pm - 9.15 pm

Sutcliff Baptist Church, Market Place, Olney, MK46 4EA

Peter Ogik is a 26-year-old albino man living in Jinja, Uganda, who's survived three kidnap attempts. This acclaimed half-hour film tells Peter's story of hardship and forgiveness and the struggles and hopes of two teenagers with albinism he's mentoring.

Following the film, discover how Olney-based charity Advantage Africa is working with Peter to end the persecution of people with albinism and prevent their early death from skin cancer.

Admission free
(donations to Advantage Africa welcome)
Refreshments provided

Jointly sponsored by Advantage Africa and
Sutcliff Baptist Church

*The film contains distressing themes:
advisory age 14+*

Advantage Africa
pathways out of poverty

Registered Charity 1092719